Goings On

End Hunger Event

Sandra and Joe survey their handywork.

The first shift of volunteers helped setup the process lines. We put stickers on boxes and bags, moved all the equipment onto the tables and primed the supply bins.

I never saw so many beans in my entire life. And we are ready for phase 2....

Goings On

Second Shift in full swing, measuring, filling, weighing, sealing and boxing.

There were four different meal packages being produced.

The first bag about to come off the line!

And Ken is making sure none of the supplies run off.

Chili Cookoff!—what more needs to be said??
